Declaration of Principles and Practices of the Office of the Assistant Commissioner (International)

The Office of the Assistant Commissioner (International) is committed to the fulfillment of its mission. We believe that this can be achieved through empowered people who understand the vital role that International has in overall tax administration. Among the most important values that we commit ourselves to in support of the people and the organization are:

International Principles

Foster	Respect, dignity, and fairness.
Provide	Quality customer service that reflects courtesy, sensitivity, concern, and timeliness.
Hold in Esteem	The unique contributions that individuals make to organizational goals and successes.
Encourage	Opportunities to integrate quality improvements and standards of excellence into all we do.

International Practices

Create	A positive work environment for all.
Provide	Challenging and rewarding work opportunities, along with career training and development.
Encourage	Creativity and innovation.
Support	Risk taking.
Concentrate	On problem solving and quality improvement.
Listen	With an open mind.
Foster	Timely, effective communication.
